

1. As an inexperienced player, I want to know the rules of Rummy so that I can play the game. (the rules of Rummy vary wildly depending on who you ask)
2. As a User, I want to know what the controls are so that I can play the game.
3. As a User, I want to see what melds are on the board so I know which can be built off of
4. As a User, I want to see what cards are in my hand so I know what plays I can make.
5. As a User, I want to know what the score is so I can play multiple rounds.
6. As a User, I want to modify the rules to use more or fewer decks of cards.
7. As a creative player, I want to modify the rules to require more or fewer points for the first meld to make the beginning of the game more or less restrictive.
8. As a User, I want myself and others to be prevented from making illegal plays, so that the game can run fairly.
9. As a User, I want to know why the play I tried to make was illegal, to better understand the game.
10. As a busy person, I want the option of playing against AI, so I can play whenever I want.
11. As a social player, I want the option of playing against my friends, so I can have fun in a group.
12. As a User, I want to know whether aces are high or low, so I can strategize better.
13. As a User, I want to organize the cards in my hand to make them easier to look through.

14. As an impatient person, I want to be able to start over so that I won't have to finish games with poor hands.
15. As a User, I want to be able to customize the background to make it more visually appealing.
16. As an artistic player, I want to be able to customize the deck used, to make it more visually appealing.
17. As a competitive player, I want to be able to adjust the number of AI players for a more chaotic experience.
18. As a User, I want certain UI elements to indicate that they're available to be interacted with so that I can know all of the options available to me. (It took me way too long to realize you could take the top card of the discard pile instead of drawing from the deck)
19. As a User, I want to change the colors of the suits so I can tell them apart better.
20. As a User, I want to be able to save the state of my game and come back to it later so that I don't have to clear my schedule to play a game.
